About Us

Veteran Solutions Inc. has grown over the years and has become a highly known company, now covering both Northern and Southern California with high performance floors. As a company our goal is to provide our customers with high quality services, professionalism, and reasonable pricing.

With the help of our customer satisfaction team we can establish the perfect system that will meet your facility's needs. Our highly experienced installers are equipped with the tools and knowledge needed to accomplish your flooring needs. We provide our commercial and industrial customers with the best possible products on the market and outstanding customer service. Veteran Solutions Inc. guarantees the best service in the industry with a great outcome.

We pride ourselves on being the best Epoxy Flooring Company in Southern California and take our reputation seriously. From the materials we use and endorse, to the rigorous certification process for installers, we give each and every customer the best floor possible. When it comes to deciding about your epoxy floors or decorative concrete needs, our slogan says it all, "The Wise Choice" when it comes down to flooring companies.

Our Story

Veteran Solutions Inc. is an industry trusted flooring contractor which specializes in flooring restoration - the installation of moisture vapor barriers and concrete leveling. With over 25 years' experience the team at VSI are specialized, very skilled and master technicians at epoxying floors, grinding, leveling, polishing concrete, and applying moisture barriers. We also install carpet, Sheet Vinyl, Tile, and wood solutions for commercial operations. We use eco grip flooring to really distinguish their level of professionalism and knowledge in the flooring industry.

VSI has been completing projects for commercial clients in government, pharmaceutical, healthcare markets. We have also been referred numerous times for flooring installation in the vastly expanding craft brewing scene - with their latest completed project -

In 2007 James made a great decision in his life to take a temporary break from his profession to stay home and raise his one and only daughter. He understands how critical those first years of life are to creating the bond he holds with her now.
